Data Protection and Privacy Notice

The information provided on your application will be processed by D&S IFCA to consider and manage your application. The information will be processed to:

- Provide you with information (the Permit Conditions) and assistance with Permit renewals
- Maintain our data base with correct details

Paragraph 16 of the Mobile Fishing Permit Byelaw 2013 states that the Permit Holder shall provide any relevant fisheries information required by the Authority. Data collected will:

- Assist D&S IFCA with fisheries management
- Assist the investigation of possible breaches of the Permit Conditions
- Help to prevent possible breaches of the Permit Conditions

We may also use and/or disclose your information:

- So we can validate it with the Marine Management Organisation or other regulators
- To offer or provide you with our literature with regard to our functions and our mandatory requirement to consult with the Permit Holder on any changes to the Flexible Permit Conditions

The Inshore Vessel Monitoring Device records and tracks the location of the vessel. The transmission data will be routinely stored by the manufacturer of the supplied device and will be accessible to D&S IFCA. I-VMS data requested by D&S IFCA will be securely stored, processed and shared with other regulators so they can carry out their statutory functions. We may use I-VMS data for investigations and internal research. Anonymised I-VMS data may be available on our website as part of the information we publish under the Freedom of Information Act.

Lawful Basis

D&S IFCA will only hold information about you that is required in order to conduct its functions imposed by legislation. Our lawful basis for this is Article 6 (1) e) of the General Data Protection Regulation. We use your information for the exercise of official authority such as under the Marine and Coastal Access Act 2009, for example to carry out investigations into possible breaches of the Byelaws.

How Long We Keep Your Information For

We will keep it while you are a permit-holder and after that for five years for administration purposes. We may also keep it for longer for statistical purposes, and will ensure there are appropriate safeguards in place.

For more information about completing this form, contact D&S IFCA by email office@devonandsevernifca.gov.uk or telephone 01803 854648. To find out more about your Data Protection rights, if you have a query or want to make a complaint see our Privacy Policy on our website at <http://www.devonandsevernifca.gov.uk/>.
