

Devon and Severn IFCA News

We are Recruiting!

An exciting opportunity has arisen to join Devon and Severn IFCA as a Fisheries Research and Management Plan Officer.

The Details

Location:	Brixham
Salary:	NJC Grade E £21,589
Type of Contact:	1-year fixed term
Work Pattern:	37 hours per week
Closing Date:	Monday 18 th November 2019
Interviews to take place:	Monday 25 th November 2019 at the Brixham Office
Benefits:	24 days annual leave plus bank holidays Time off in lieu of accrued hours

Role Purpose

The full job description can be viewed here and involves the following:

- To develop and produce the first Fisheries Research and Management Plans for the Devon and Severn's (D&S IFCA) District
- To promote the Fisheries Research and Management Plans and their contents to relevant organisations and stakeholders
- To assist with the delivery of the Fisheries Research and Management Plan project aims and reporting to the funding body
- To at all times work to positively represent the D&S IFCA and the values of the organisation

Qualifications and Skills Required

- A marine environment related degree or equivalent work experience
- Excellent desk-based research and writing skills
- Good statistical data analysis and interpretation skills
- Experience of GIS data analysis
- Knowledge of the UK fisheries management regime and relevant legislation and policy
- An understanding of wider marine environment issues, marine activities and the marine planning and licensing regimes
- Excellent communication skills, experience of presenting complex issues to technical and non-technical audiences
- Experience of building relationships with a wide range of stakeholders, governmental and non-governmental organisations
- Excellent organisational and prioritisation skills

To Apply

For an application form and job specification please contact 01803 854648 or email office@devonandsevernifca.gov.uk

No CVs will be accepted.